

North Macedonia's Security and Intelligence Agency Director Vanishes Before Verdict - February 22, 2021

Former North Macedonian Security and Intelligence Agency (UBK) Director Sašo Miyalkov, who was tried as the chief defendant in the "Target-Tvrđina" case for illegal listening to thousands of people in North Macedonia, the court ruled for house arrest. For Miyalkov, whom the police couldn't find in his home, the court issued a national and international arrest warrant.