

Protests in Albania - December 9, 2020

Protests are being held in Albania over the death of a 25-year-old teenager in hospital after being shot and injured by the police. Dozens of people, including civil society activists, gathered in front of the Ministry of Interior and chanted slogans, "No justice, no peace". As the protests continued, Prime Minister Edi Rama announced in a statement that Interior Minister Sandër Lleshaj has submitted his resignation.
