3-week Quarantine in Greece - November 5, 2020

In order to prevent the re-increase of cases in the coronavirus epidemic in Greece, a 3-week quarantine decision was made across the country. Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis announced that the three-week quarantine application, which will start throughout the country from 06:00 on Saturday, November 7, will be in effect until November 30.