

Fire destroys Greece's Moria camp on Lesbos - September 9, 2020

Fire has destroyed Greece's largest migrant camp, an overcrowded Moria facility on the island of Lesbos. Moria was home to nearly 13,000 people, more than four times the number it can officially hold. One week before the fire occurred in the camp, the first coronavirus case was detected and the camp was quarantined.