

President calls Croatian parliamentary election for July 5! - 20 May 2020

Croatian President Zoran Milanovic announced in a written statement that after the parliament's dissolution on Monday, the general election date has been set, and the election will be held on July 5th. Voters will elect 151 MPs, of whom 140 in ten constituencies in Croatia, three will be elected by expatriates and eight by ethnic minorities.