

Citizens gather in National Theatre protest! - 20 May 2020

A second protest against the demolition of the National Theatre concluded peacefully on Wednesday evening, which brought together again hundreds of civil society members, citizens and artists. The wife of Albania's president was detained along with more than 30 others during a first protest against the demolition of the National Theatre in Tirana.