

Residents of Dagestan district centre claim threat of mass deaths! - 02 May 2020

In the Gergebil District of Dagestan, hospitals are overcrowded. In a few days, 12 people died, local residents complaining about the absence of drugs and ALV (artificial lung ventilation) devices in hospitals. Dagestan ranks fifth in Russia in the number of coronavirus infection cases, ahead of other regions of Southern Russia.