

Israel's Blue and White party splits after Gantz elected as Knesset speaker! - 27 March 2020

Israel's Blue and White party dissolved on Thursday after party chairman Benny Gantz nominated himself to become the new speaker of the Knesset and join Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu in government. Soon after Gantz announced his nomination, the three parties that comprised the Blue and White alliance - Hosen L'Israel, Yesh Atid and Telem - decided to go their own ways. The dissolution of the blue and white party was a major shock.
