

Humanitarian Crisis is expanding in Syria! - 28 February 2020

According to United Nations report on 26 February 2020 , since the 1th December 2019 approximately 948.000 person, which consist 569.00 children and 195.000 women, displaced in Northern Syria. Reported that, the current situation is the worst since beginning of the war at 2011. Of the people who have to struggle with cold weather situtations and economic diffuculties 17.000 of them living under trees , 163.000 living at construction buildings and 135.000 living at tent.