

Government formed as demonstrations continue in Lebanon! - 21 January 2010

On 29 October 2019, Prime Minister Saad al-Hariri resigned during demonstrations in Lebanon over the economic crisis and the government's tax policies. Mohammed Diyab, known to have supported Hezbollah and the March 8 bloc, formed a government made up of technocrats rather than sectarian balances. The new government's priority agenda will be the demands of the protesters.
