

Demonstrations Continues in Algeria - April 11,2019

After two decade in power resigning Algeria's President Bouteflika last week, Abdulkader Binsalah was named as interim leader of 90 days until a new election. Although, young students and demonstrators keeping remaining in the streets, demanding free election and countries liberalization. Today, hundreds of protesters marche through the Algerian capital demanding President Abdelaziz Bouteflika's resignation as soon as possible.