

Iran Hit With Third Major Flood in two Weeks

Villages and towns in Lorestan, Iran's Southwestern have been hit with floods. Numerous rivers had burst their banks and landslides blocked many roads, said the reports. Iranian people shared their protest videos and react against officials because of lack of equipment.