

China imprisons Famous Kazakh Imam

Patihan Arsan and his wife were arrested and sent to one of Xinjiang's many so-called re-education camps, along with an estimated 1 to 1.5 million others. Although the Chinese government awarded the ethnic-Kazakh imam "Xinjiang's Model Citizen" award, it wasn't enough to get rid of assimilation policies of China.