

Protest in Minority Schools in Western Thrace - September 27, 2018

The students of 30 Minority Primary Schools in Western Thrace are protesting that they do not have the necessary books in Greek language and they are not given equal opportunities compared to other public schools.