

90% of Rohingya population of Northern Arakan fled to Bangladesh -March 2, 2018

According to the Irrawaddy which is a publishing group founded by the Burmese exiles in Thailand, and INGOs 90% of Rohingya population of Northern Arakan fled to Bangladesh by Myanmar's clearance operations. The Irrawaddy collected the information from regional statistics reports which are dated October 2017, from the General Administrative Department and United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs. According to a comparison between previous and current statistics it is estimated that only 79.038 (%10) Rohingya remained in Maungdaw, Buthidaung, and Rathedaung.