

Mosul under ruins -March 1, 2018

After the Iraqi government declared victory over DAESH, rescue workers started to search and clean operation all around the Mosul. According to initial findings, workers found more than 3.000 bodies although some are DAESH fighters but it is civilians who paid the highest price for the war.