

More than 5.000 Children has been Killed in Yemen -January 17, 2018

The five-year-long war in Yemen has killed more than 5.000 children and left almost 400.000 of them malnourished. Yemen war started in March 2015 and more than 3 million children were born in this war-torn country. The UN children agency said that over 11 million children (nearly every child in Yemen) were in need of humanitarian assistance.
