

Balkans; the Intersection Point Between East and West

INSAMER's researcher for the Balkans, Emin Emin, made a presentation titled "Balkans; the Intersection point between East and West", in the 4-week program organized by Konya IHH. During the presentation, Emin explained the history, demography, political, economical, and sociological crisis in the region as well as the policy of global actors on the region.