

The historical ties between South African Muslim community and Turkey

Within the scope of the "South Africa Seminars" organized by the Ankara-based African Foundation in company with experts in their field, İNSAMER African Studies Coordinator Dr. Serhat Orakçı held a webinar presentation addressing historical ties established between the Muslim communities in South Africa and Turkey.