

Central Asia: Turkic Republics in the Transformation Process

Our Eurasia desk researcher Burak Çalışkan made a presentation on "Central Asia: Turkic Republics in the Transformation Process" at the International Political Academy organized by Tügva. Up your day Kazakhstan's, Kyrgyzstan's, Turkmenistan's and Uzbekistan's independence has survived crises and recently realized positive reforms as well as the final chapter of the potential to affect the Turkey, the US, Russia and focused on China's Central Asian oriented strategies.