

Selim Vatandaş talked about the breaking points of EU-Turkey Relations in Kocaeli University.

INSAMER European Program Researcher Selim Vatanadaş made a presentation titled “An Unending Walking: On the breaking points of Turkey-EU Relations” in Kocaeli University. Vatandaş discussed the Turkish foreign policy's approach to the European Union membership process and the legitimacy of EU reforms of Turkey in 2000s in his presentation. According to Vatandaş it is not possible to get the positive results on EU-Turkey relations unless the actors and political approach change on both sides.
