

East Turkistan Reading Seminars was succesfully held in INSAMER

East Turkistan Reading Group Seminars was successfully held in INSAMER between March 10 and April 7, 2019. East Turkestan's political history, its social structure, and the conditions of the Uighurs were discussed in the four-week seminar. The program, which was organized for the second time this year, ended with the issuance of certificates to the participating students.