

IHH African Studies Working Group is discussed the milestones in the history of the Africa continent

IHH Istanbul is organizing regional studies reading groups for its staff. In the 7-week program, the African Studies Working Group is scheduled to talk about the milestones in the history as well as the highlights of today's developments in the Africa continent. In the first week of the event Anadolu Agency News Editor İbrahim Tıđlı delivered a presentation titled "A Bried History of the Africa" in İNSAMER.
