UAE cabinet approves setting up embassy in Tel Aviv - January 24, 2021

The United Arab Emirates cabinet on Sunday approved the establishment of an embassy in the city of Tel Aviv in Israel. No further details about the embassy were given in UAE media. Israel's government regards Jerusalem as its capital, although that is not recognized by most of the international community. Palestinians claim East Jerusalem as the capital of a future Palestinian state. Most countries have their embassies in Tel Aviv.
