Preliminary results of the extraordinary mayoral election - November 11, 2020

The first unofficial results of the extraordinary mayoral elections in Podujevo and North Mitrovica in Kosovo have been published.

According to the results published by the Central Election Commission, Vetëvendosje Movement Mayor Candidate Shpejtim Bulliqi won 51.64% of the vote in Poduyeva, while Serbian List candidate Milan Radojevic won the election with 89.86% in Northern Mitrovica.