

Romanian Prime Minister Resigns -January 16, 2018

Prime Minister Mihail Tudose, who took office in Romania 7 months ago, has resigned from his post. Tudose announced his resignation after losing support from his party at the National Executive Committee meeting of the Social Democratic Party. With Tudose, two prime ministers resigned in the period following the elections held on December 2016.