"Middle East" presentation was held in Kocaeli

Within the scope of the program organized by Gebze Young IHH, Kadriye Sınmaz made her "Middle East" presentation on 21 January in Kartepe. In the seminar, the fundamental dynamics that established the modern Middle East were addressed, and the turning points that occurred until the 2000s were highlighted. Continuing with the explanation of the main problem areas in the Middle East today, the program ended with the questions of the participants.
