Applications for "Regional Specialization Training" Started!

Applications for the "Regional Specialization Training", which is prepared for those who want to improve themselves and specialize in a particular region, are starting.

Education Period:

First Semester courses will last for 6 weeks and two topics will be covered each week,

In the second season, students will select a specific region and continue to have regional courses

Students who complete their first-year courses in May 2021 will be entitled to the internship by completing a final homework or exam,

Conditions of application:

Undergraduate, graduate and phd students can apply to the program.

The form must be filled in completely.

The success criteria of the program are 80% compulsory attendance and showing exam success.